After having accumulated almost 250 reviews, the firm has achieved an overall rating of 5.0 stars. In the latest review, Lorraine S. expressed her gratitude for the help that Attorney Purav Bhatt provided for her son?s case and how he diligently worked as defense lawyer and kept his promise. As a Chicago criminal attorney, Purav Bhatt makes full use of his firsthand experience and knowledge about the prosecution techniques to provide strong defenses for his clients.

In the five-star review, Lorraine S. said, ?Attorney Purav did exactly what he was supposed to do in reference to my son?s case he kept his word he worked diligently and as fast as he could considerably because I?m sure he has many cases of families that he represents. I most certainly appreciate his professionalism his candor and his manner of speaking with me talking with my son and being truthful about the entire situation. I will keep his information law firm in my records in the event that I can pass it on to other individuals who may pass me or ask me if I know a defense attorney. Thank you for your service again attorney. We appreciate your service.?

Attorney Purav Bhatt has achieved successful results for hundreds of jury and bench trials involving drug offenses, weapons charges, animal crimes, gang related offenses, thefts, and violent crimes. He provides free consultation, including virtual consultation, for potential clients in the Chicago area, including Skokie and neighboring areas such as Niles, Glenview, Evanston, Winnetka, Morton Grove, Lincolnwood, Wilmette, and Northbrook.

The firm does not only have highly positive reviews on Google but also on Yelp and Avvo. They have an Avvo rating of 10 out of 10. He has a proven track record of winning cases. One of the recent cases that he won is the case where the defendant was accused of the crime of possession of a weapon by a felon. The defendant was attending a party when police entered the place with a search warrant. Police claimed they saw the defendant carrying a pistol, which he tried to hide in the kitchen. Attorney Purav Bhatt was able to show the weaknesses in the case of the prosecution and the defendant was found not guilty of all charges in relation to the firearm.

In another recent case, the defendant was a Chicago police officer who was accused of domestic battery in relation to an argument with the grandfather of his children. Through careful preparation and questioning, Attorney Purav Bhatt was able to show that the complainant was the real aggressor and that the police officer was merely defending himself against an attack. The result was that the defendant was found not guilty of all domestic violence and battery charges.

Founded in 2010, The Law Office of Purav Bhatt has the mission of providing cost-effective and aggressive criminal defense representation for all clients. Attorney Purav Bhatt defends people charged with federal crimes, DUI and traffic violations, weapons charges, theft and shoplifting, drug offenses, robbery and burglary, assault and battery including domestic violence, and other felonies and misdemeanors. He can also provide legal assistance with regards to expungements / sealing and probation violations. Attorney Purav Bhatt employs his previous experience as Cook County State?s Attorney to have a valuable understanding of the goals and objectives of the prosecution. Having worked with police officers, investigators, and detectives in building criminal cases against the accused, he has developed the ability to notice any deficiencies in those cases and develop robust defenses for this clients.
