"Our experienced workers' comp attorneys have respresented injured workers across the community for years. We help claims get processed to get benefits and more to help injured residents during this stressful time. We plan to discuss the proper steps to file a workers' compensation claim during this webinar. Additionally, we will answer some common questions such as if they need to hire an attorney to process their workplace injury claim," stated Gabriel A. DiLeonardo, Sr., Esq. the firm's managing attorney.

The Neptune City workers' comp attorneys not only handle worksite injuries but many other types of personal injury cases, including auto collisions, construction accidents, train derailments, medical negligence, dog bites, slip and fall injuries, and so much more.

"Our attorneys know how important financial recovery is to workers that are out of work. Compensation is necessary to pay medical bills and cover lost income. We are committed to helping each victim receive justice from their work-related injury," stated Gabriel A. DiLeonardo, Sr., Esq.

The law firm services residents in Neptune City as well as the surrounding areas such as Deal, Neptune

Township, Avon-By-The-Sea, Bradley Beach, Bradley Park, West Grove, Whitesville, Belmar, Wanamassa, Asbury Park, Wertheins Corner, Lake Como, Wayside, Oakhurst, Hockhockson, Elberon, West Deal, and more.
