December 20, 2021

December 20, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

New York - The top-rated New York City law firm, Law Office of David S. Leigh, P.C. would like to announce it had moved the online presence to a new address to create a better online experience for the website users. Law Office of David S. Leigh, P.C. has changed the website name to <https://leighlawoffice.com>, the previous domain was <https://davidleighlaw.com>.

The digital team has been working hard to make the information on personal injury services provided by the law firm, whether it's a slip and fall, a car accident, or even a wrongful death, easier for the clients to find online.

"We're excited to be able to assist more people in New York by offering our services on the website that is easy to navigate and remember," said the company's founding attorney David S. Leigh. "The new domain name now provides a single destination for Law Office of David S. Leigh official site content. Now you can easier reach out to our lawyers specializing in personal injury and set an appointment or a consultation."

The changes come as a response to the growing clients' demand for quality legal assistance in New York. It will enable the law firm to offer clients increased expertise and professionalism when it comes to personal injury, misconduct, slip and fall, car accident, and other claims in NYC.

Links to the Law Office of David S. Leigh, P.C. website that use the davidleighlaw.com domain will be automatically redirected to leighlawoffice.com.

Both sites are now looking and working exactly the same, with only the URL being a major difference. Yet there will be some pages hidden in search results so that it is advisable to have the right access to the new domain name.

"Being the company increasingly focused on crafting an exceptional customer experience across all channels, Law Office of David S. Leigh urges you to explore our new website and would appreciate any feedback," said Mr. Leigh.

While no major changes were made in the site layout, the active web interface adds rich content and easy navigation throughout the website.

Law Office of David S. Leigh has been working hard to provide top-notch legal representation to their clients offering proven legal expertise, solid communication skills, and hands-on trial experience.
