Luxury Network SRL is proud to announce that they will be featuring the biographies of many of the richest people in the world, starting with the biography of Donald Trump, in their online luxury encyclopedia. Additionally, they are listing many of the luxurious items that these billionaires buy.

The new article series is designed to be both informative and inspiring, and perhaps for those ultra wealthy among their readers, a nice way to learn what the other rich and famous are buying these days in order to show that they are one of the world's elite. The Trump biography is one of the most popular items listed on their site at present as his current presidential run has made searches for the Trump story and his products extremely popular and viral.

"People have a genuine interest in all things rich and luxurious," says Adrian Poputoaia from Luxury Network SRL. "This is proven in how popular the biography of Donald Trump is. His story is truly fascinating and inspiring at the same time, in part because he is very, very rich, and everyone knows it."

The biography of Trump on Luxgram is getting a lot of attention because it may reveal part of the mystery of why he is getting involved in politics. It turns out that, despite what he tells the media, Donald Trump is not a self made millionaire. Rather, he comes from a very wealthy family that played a prominent role in New York City real estate. It is believed that one of the reasons why Trump wanted to run for president is because he wants to keep the Trump family name in the public eye, and in fact keep it there forever. When Donald Trump took over his father's company, he immediately changed the name to The Trump Organization. Ever since, he has been putting the Trump name on everything imaginable, including many luxury products.

"He has marketed his name on a baffling number of products, including a line of menswear and men's accessories, a fragrance, chocolate, home furnishings, vodka, and even a board game," adds Adrian Poputoaia, an editor from LuxGram Luxury Encyclopedia. "He enthusiastically launched himself into a number of other businesses, always making sure that his fame and public recognition wouldn't falter, and that his name was always out in front of the public. The products that wealthy people buy say a lot about them, which is why the Luxury Encyclopedia is so fascinating to many readers - it connects them to different sides of the personalities of the richest people in the world, and at the top of that list of personalities is Donald Trump."

Just like his expensive products, this billionaire presidential candidate has managed to grab the world's attention, and according to the article, he will certainly be using it to his advantage. The Donald Trump biography has gotten people talking about what his true intentions are when it comes to running for president. Trump himself was quoted as saying: "Sometimes by losing a battle you find a new way to win the war." What isn't clear, however, is the war that he is trying to win.

What is very clear is that Trump has certainly won the war of wealth, and his luxury products prove it.

The billionaire biography series is available on www.LuxGram.com.
