December 30, 2021 -

Georgia based Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Macon is reaching out to the wider community to share information about their auto accident attorney services. The law firm has many years of experience in personal injury law and is dedicated to helping the residents of Georgia with their legal troubles.

Tim Derrickson of Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Macon says, "Most auto accidents are the direct result of a negligent action. The negligence may be something as simple as failing to yield the right of way, or something more drastic like driving under the influence. Whatever the form of negligence is, under the law, a victim of a negligent action has specific rights to compensation if they have been involved in a car wreck and subsequently sustained injuries. If you have been the victim of an auto accident, you need to make sure that you hire an experienced auto accident attorney so that you can recover the full amount of compensation you are entitled to under the law."

Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Macon's legal team will skillfully review each and every auto accident case case and determine what obligations the insurance company has relating to the victim's injuries. This may include compensation for property damages to the victim's vehicle, temporary replacement of the vehicle, ongoing medical treatment and lost wages and more. In cases of extensive injuries, the insurance company may also be obligated to pay the victim for pain and suffering as well as loss of enjoyment of life. As part of their investigation, they will also speak to medical providers, repair shops and even witnesses to the accident. Each piece of information will be carefully evaluated, following which a compensation package will be created.

The law firm advises that, in most cases, insurance companies will be trying to cut as many benefits as possible to protect their bottom line. They are generally not concerned with necessity or fairness. Derrickson says, "While this is just an unfortunate truth about life, you can fight back. Having the right legal representation can help you fight against insurance firms and make sure you receive fair and just compensation for your injuries."

The law offices of Kenneth S. Nugent are conveniently located in Macon and six other locations across Georgia. Legal representatives are available to take calls at any time, and consultations are always free. If an individual is unable to go to the office for a consultation due to their injuries, a representative will be willing to visit them instead.

The services provided by Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C. - Macon have earned the firm high praise from their clients. Rob says in his 5-Star Google review, "I was very pleased with the services I received from this law firm. The attorneys were very informative regarding my case. I worked closely with Ashley Sanders, Ashley Pitts, Alicia Barnes and another attorney whose name I cannot recall. They were all very professional and communicated with me every step of the way. I will definitely utilize their services again in the future if ever needed."

In another 5-Star review, Patricia Saunders says, "Very professional and responsive company. After a 4-car accident in December 2020, my husband contacted Ken Nugent to represent me. From the initial meeting with Investigator Derrick Hayes to ongoing interactions with Leigh and Amber in the Macon, Georgia office answering questions on paperwork completion and guiding me through the process, I could not have been in better hands. The Client Portal was very useful and the staff very responsive and empathetic, handling someone who had never experienced such a traumatic event. I would highly recommend Ken Nugent and his Macon, Georgia staff. My case was satisfactorily settled with the responsible driver's insurance company. I would not have been able to go through the legal process without them."
