Panama City, Fla. ? The holiday season can be a magical time of year. Be that as it may, it is also a time when debt balances can increase significantly, so bankruptcy attorneys, Lewis and Jurnovoy, are urging their community members currently facing financial crisis to seek out debt relief help now.

If an individual is drowning in debt, has mounting credit card bills, is receiving harassing phone calls from debt collectors, and/or simply has no idea how to start digging themselves out of financial trouble, then now is the time to seek out debt relief assistance. Martin Lewis and Steven Jurnovoy joined as partners over two decades ago and have been providing bankruptcy help in Panama City and the entire Florida Panhandle since then. As such, they are well aware of how easily those in debt can end up sacrificing their time and health trying to dig their way out of financial turmoil, and they want to reiterate that they can provide hope and help.

Consultation appointments are provided at no cost and can be done via the phone or in-person with either Martin Lewis or Steven Jurnovoy at one of their four office locations in Crestview, Fort Walton Beach, Pensacola, and Panama City. Additionally, the two lawyers host, ?Bankruptcy Hour,? a live show where they discuss topics such as bankruptcy, foreclosures, lawsuits, credit card debt, and much more. Anyone who would like to ask questions during the live show can call in or submit their inquiries directly to bkhour@4-debtor.com.

The talented lawyers at Lewis and Jurnovoy can provide debt consolidation assistance and bankruptcy help. The firm works diligently to identify the best financial solution for every client.
