Bluffton, SC - Professional Painters of Hilton Head, a local residential painting company, brings its top-rated cabinet refinishing services to Hilton Head Plantation.

The painting company is helping residents of Hilton Head Plantation bring back their cabinets to their top shape with its refinishing works. Instead of a total makeover, Professional Painters of Hilton Head is recommending this service to its customers. The painting company says that refinishing classic cabinets at home has numerous benefits.

According to them, cabinet refinishing is the most cost-effective option for homeowners. Getting a new set of cabinets is expensive and requires more work. But with refinishing or painting, they can finish the job in just a few days without exhausting their client's bank accounts.

Another factor to consider with Cabinet Refinishing Hilton Head Plantation is convenience. Remodeling may take days, even weeks, to complete. On the other hand, painting or refinishing takes less time, so clients can quickly return to their space sooner. Refinished cabinets also add value to the home. Since it requires less time to make and costs less, homeowners who put their house for sale can surely get a bigger investment return.

"If old kitchen cabinets are still functional, classic cabinet refinishing is a better option. We can revive any cabinet and leave them looking like new once we're done," they say.

Meanwhile, besides Hilton Head Classic Cabinet Refinishing, Professional Painters of Hilton Head also specializes in several services. They do Kitchen Cabinet Painting, Cabinet Refacing, and Custom Painted Finishes. The firm also handles residential and commercial painting projects of various sizes in Hilton Head Island, including the Hilton Head Plantation community.

The painting contractor says they have two main focuses; incredible work and service. They love what they do, and with that, their passion shines through. They added, "We want to give every job, whether it is residential or commercial, to be unquestionably 5-star work."

As support for their customers, Professional Painters of Hilton Head offers a free quotation for all their services. They also give discounts to senior citizens, teachers, police officers, and active military. The local painting contractor also gives a two-year warranty on all its painting services. All labor and supplies are guaranteed for two years on two-coat work, but not deck flooring. Professional Painters of Hilton Head will also give labor and materials to rectify paint failure.
