

M4 Research Launches Alternative Investments Membership Club

October 30, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

M4 Research, led by Brad Weinman and Barry Goss, have launched an alternative investments membership club for those who are interested in building short-term cash flow and long-term wealth. The club, M4 Insider, is an exclusive program built to help investors and entrepreneurs find additional ways to add a more diverse roster of top performing investments to their portfolio, which may otherwise go unnoticed. The company has made it clear that M4 Insider has been designed to overcome the intimidating financial barriers and decline in the economy which have previously held investors back from succeeding.

One of the key factors to overcoming the pitfalls of investing, according to M4 Research, is in avoiding outdated financial vehicles, and choosing more successful and updated models through which to invest. Weinman is quoted in saying: "If you're going to make a 3,000 mile trip across the country, you probably wouldn't choose a horse drawn carriage to do it, right? Of course not. You'd choose the most time-efficient 'vehicle' available to get you to your destination as soon as possible. Yet, when it comes to increasing your income and building wealth, most people choose slow, outdated financial vehicles and invest like our grandparents did (the equivalent of using a horse-drawn carriage)."

This club is, as M4 Research would say, a facilitator, which acts to seek out uncommon but highly efficient financial vehicles for uncovered opportunities. These tend to be cash-flow opportunities and investments which are not available through traditional brokers and advisors.

More information about M4 Insider can be viewed at <http://ar.m4research.com?p=m4lm&w=m4ips>. There a breakdown of special membership benefits and costs can be seen along with reviews from current clients who have begun participating actively. The company states: "We're constantly researching and testing new opportunities and resources. As an M4 Insider, you're going to get real world, here's-what-works and here's-how-to-profit information you can start using right away. We'll update you on what's working and what's not, and where adjustments can be made along the way. You'll also get access to all of our previously archived content. Whether you're interested in bigger gains, or prefer a safer, steadier approach, there's truly something here for everyone."

Space within the exclusive club may be limited. Thus, Brad Weinman and Barry Goss are encouraging those interested to visit their website as soon as possible.
