January 06, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Home Instead Romford, an award-winning home care company that offers the best in-home services throughout Romford, Dagenham, Hornchurch, and Rainham in East London, has been named as a five-star employer by the independent employee engagement experts at WorkBuzz. The company is using this opportunity to encourage kind and compassionate individuals in and around Romford, Dagenham, Hornchurch, and Rainham to apply and start a rewarding career in care.

WorkBuzz's survey found that the company had an employee engagement score of 90, netting Home Instead Romford a rating that very few companies manage to achieve. The survey asked employees about career development, their relationship with their managers, and their day-to-day responsibilities. The employee engagement platform noted that Home Instead Romford has created a work culture where employees can thrive. Home Instead Romford's owner Kiran Agrawal said she is delighted to be recognized as a five-star employer "particularly in light of yet another challenging year for our CAREGivers". The company was also recently awarded an Outstanding rating from the CQC, an independent regulator of all health and social care services in England.

A CAREGiver is the company's way of addressing its highly trained and qualified personnel who are handpicked to meet the requirements of its clients. CAREGivers are picked after intense scrutiny and assigned to clients only after they are found to be compatible with the clients' likes and dislikes and are deemed to be the right fit for productive and fulfilling home care. Home Instead Romford is motivating applicants to take up the challenge of becoming a CAREGiver because it strongly believes that it is an exciting career opportunity that brings with it the satisfaction of making a difference in the lives of those that need their help most. Interested, experienced, and qualified job seekers can head over to the company's website and submit an application to become a CAREGiver.

Of the many vacancies currently available at the company, the Weekend Care Assistant position pays £10.00

- £20.00 per hour, offers a 0 hours permanent contract, makes available flexible shift patterns, provides industry-leading training to successful applicants, gives employees full PPE protection when they are on the job, provides them plenty of career development and progression opportunities by helping them get the Care Certification, and also makes available an Employee Benefits Scheme. The job requirements for the aforementioned position include tasks such as taking clients to appointments and social gatherings, preparing nutritious meals and snacks, collecting prescriptions, grocery shopping, and other errands, performing modest housekeeping, such as laundry or ironing, preparing medication reminders and prompts, assisting clients in getting in and out of bed each morning and night, running a shower or bath and staying nearby in case they require assistance, and assisting with clothing and undressing as well as personal care as needed.

The ideal candidate for a CAREGiver position with Home Instead Romford is someone who is enthusiastic to help those who struggle to get through life on a daily basis. Applicants for the position should be empathetic enough to understand the difficulties faced by the people who are disabled or in the twilight years of their lives. Readers who think they have what it takes to be there for those in need can head over to the company's website to browse through its entire vacancy listing and find the best home care jobs that are suited to their qualifications and skills.
