January 04, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Atlanta, GA - Audiology On Call has announced a mobile hearing aid testing and fitting service. The company, founded by Stephany Sun, Au.D., CCC-A, Jenna Ahdaya, HIS, and Kelli Smith, Au.D., FAAA, focuses on bringing the highest levels of audiological care to the patient. Patients within the greater metro Atlanta area can now receive hearing assessments, hearing aid repair, hearing aid fitting, and hearing aid tuning from the comfort of their home and at their convenience.

Jenna Ahdaya, HIS, is a licensed Hearing Instrument Specialist, having studied under Dr. Stephany Sun for nearly three years before becoming a hearing aid provider at a private clinic in Stone Mountain. Ahdaya has a passion for serving her patients and bettering their quality of life through her services. Jenna specializes in hearing testing, hearing aid fitting, and promoting the latest advancements in hearing technology.

By providing a mobile service Ahdaya and Audiology On Call quickly differentiate themselves from their competitors by delivering quality audiological care without the COVID-19 risk of crowded waiting rooms and busy offices. In addition, because Audiology On Call does not maintain a central office and the associated costs, the savings are then passed on to the patient.

As a lifelong member of the Lilburn community, Jenna has provided east Metro Atlanta with the highest quality hearing aid services for more than five years. She has quickly become one of the most trusted Hearing Instrument Specialists in the metro Atlanta area. Ahdaya works with most major insurance carriers; interested patients should contact her through the Audiology On Call website or office phone (833) 244-3275.
