McHenry Roofing is known for its high-quality workmanship and competitive prices. The company is accredited and all of its roofing professionals are fully trained and insured. Their team has decades of combined experience in the industry, offering expert service to clients throughout Baltimore.

The Baltimore roofing specialists are able to repair and install a wide range of roofs ? composite, metal, tile, TPO, modified bitumen, wood, shingle, and flat roofs. Further services include re-roofing and roof coating, helping clients to strengthen their roofing systems and avoid the expense of a complete roof replacement.

McHenry Roofing clients benefit from their eco-friendly roof coating process which helps to prevent leaks, bolster weather defenses, and reduce energy costs. The company also offers complimentary roof inspections to help clients ascertain the most suitable roofing option for their property.

McHenry Roofing is a fully licensed and insured professional roofing contractor. The firm was established by Joseph Conley, a long-time Federal Hill resident with over 20 years of experience in the industry. A member of the National Roof Contractors Association (NRCA), McHenry Roofing also supports the Baltimore community with donations to local charities and organizations.

Clients in need of emergency roofing repairs can contact McHenry Roofing at all hours, as they have a full crew standing by to evaluate roofs damaged by fire, severe weather, or leaks.

According to McHenry Roofing, roofing leaks are deceptive in terms of the damage that may have already been caused by the time initial signs are spotted. For this reason, homeowners should arrange for roof leak repairs as early as possible. Those interested can learn more at <https://www.mchenryroofers.com/>.

These roofing specialists advise on several visible clues that may indicate a leak. Water stains and bubbles on walls and ceilings, mildew or mold growth, missing or damaged shingles, and roof rot are some indicators of a potentially devastating roof leak. They also suggest that clients watch out for sagging spots on the roof, and blocked downspouts or gutters.

In addition to roof damage, the company also provides full-service repair work on gutters, siding, fences, windows and drywall among other specialist jobs.

McHenry Roofing?s comprehensive range of services includes complete re-roofing, which sees the entire roof deck replaced. In addition to new shingles, this service also offers replacement of roof vents and flashing systems.

One satisfied client said: "The McHenry Roofing team was very professional and great to work with. They went above and beyond to help us with our roof issues and our extended porch. Overall, they did excellent work in a short time frame, cleaning up and removing all debris. I'd recommend this company to anyone."
