Laguna beach, CA based company, 3rd Rock Products, has determined a possible way for individuals to enhance their focus and brain power through a Nootropic product called Steady Focus. Each bottle contains 60 vegetarian capsules, which are created in the United States within an FDA inspected cGMP compliant facility using all natural ingredients.

The company created this alternative to coffee and energy drinks in an effort to answer the question of how to enhance your brain. The working ingredients within the capsules includes a combination of caffeine and L-theanine, which work together to provide a unique alertness which garners no crash or fatigue, but rather tapers off naturally. 3rd Rock Products explains: "The right dose is everything. In developing products, we focus on ingredients that have human clinical trials behind them. Trails that outline the effective dose needed to deliver the desired outcome. If you adhere to the prescribed dosage, you can expect Steady Focus to do what it promises, give you alertness, energy, focus and clarity."

The company believes so completely in the product that they offer all customers a 100% money back client guarantee for consumers who try the supplements and decide that they aren't working for them. Currently these capsules hold a high ranking among consumers, with most ratings falling into the 5 star category. One satisfied customer, Wendi Small, writes: "I came across this product, and after doing some research, thought I would give it a shot. I was hesitant because it just didn't seem like a pill could help that much but I was so wrong. The first night, I popped one pill a half hour before the kids' bed time. By the time my daughter was asleep, I felt so ready to take on the night. I can't believe how much I got done. I vacuumed the whole house, cleaned the windows, scrubbed down the whole kitchen and bathroom, and finished the night off by conquering a mountain of restaurant paperwork."
