

Seattle Cannabis Co., A Marijuana Dispensary in Seattle, Has Launched A New Redesigned Website

January 21, 2022

January 21, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Seattle, WA - Seattle Cannabis Co., a veteran-owned business in Seattle, Washington, has released a new website design with additional features and new layout. The website enables clients to easily access all of the company's products and a FAQ page to answer all the questions they may have.

The newly renovated website features an expanded navigation, which makes it simple to rapidly locate the information you're looking for. The home page is well-structured, including directions to the store, products, and images. Customers can shop the monthly specials from a link on the new home page, titled Monthly Deals.

The newly updated vendors page includes comprehensive information about Seattle Cannabis Co.'s chosen brands. Doug W, the company's owner, states. "When it comes to making informed choices regarding your health and well-being, knowledge is critical. It's your body, and we at Seattle Cannabis Co believe it's critical for you to be informed about the strains and forms of cannabis that contribute to your experience." On the vendor page, customers can click to see more about that particular company and their available strands.

Seattle Cannabis Co , newly redesigned menu page features all of the store's available products. Allowing customers to search by category or brand. Once the user locates the item they are searching for, they can use the company's straightforward shop to discover price and availability to place an order online for in-store or curbside pickup.

Doug stated on the website, "We take pleasure in being veteran-owned, LGBTQ+ friendly, and a safe space for everyone to get their cannabis needs met. We adhere to all Covid rules and have handicapped parking and accesses. I adore the environment we've created in our business, but the new website is the cherry on top."

Visit Seattle Cannabis Co.'s Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/seattleccrainier/> or email rainier@seattlecannabis.co.

Marijuana Laws

This product is highly intoxicating and has the potential to become addictive. Marijuana can affect one's ability to concentrate, coordinate, and make sound judgments. Under no circumstances should this medicine be used to operate a car or machinery. Consumption of this product may pose health concerns. Not to be used by anyone under the age of twenty-one.

###

For more information about Seattle Cannabis Co, contact the company here: Seattle Cannabis Co
Doug W(206) 420-1042
rainier@seattlecannabis.co
7266 Rainier Avenue South, Seattle, WA. 98118

Seattle Cannabis Co

Seattle Cannabis Co. is Seattle's premier location for all of your recreational cannabis needs. We carry top quality products that are available 7 days a week. Tourists welcome! Open to all 21+ years of age.

Website: <https://www.seattlecannabis.co/>

Email: rainier@seattlecannabis.co

Phone: (206) 420-1042

