Alexander Napolin Is Helping Those Searching Online For "Glendora Personal Injury Lawyer Near Me"

January 20, 2022

January 20, 2022 -

Alexander Napolin is providing legal services to potential clients searching online for "Glendora Personal Injury Lawyer Near Me". The attorney's law office is encouraging those who have been harmed through the fault or negligence of others to seek legal counsel to get the restitution they need to put the harrowing experience behind them and move on with their lives.

Alexander Napolin has built a reputation for being one of Glendora's best accident injury lawyers. His law office specializes in auto accidents, workers' compensation, personal injury, and wrongful death cases. He has established a proven methodology to go against the insurance companies that try to cut costs and nickel and dime the victims by offering paltry sums of money that in no way make up for the pain and suffering that they have been caused. Alexander Napolin's methods have been proven to work time and time again in the hundreds of cases that he has handled so far for his many satisfied clients.

When asked about what makes him a cut above the rest, Alexander Napolin says, "I am a 100% plaintiff-side lawyer. This means that I never defend the insurance companies that so callously go about their greedy corporate agenda and block innocent victims from getting the resources that they are rightfully owed as a result of the accident that they have lived through. In fact, I and my team are experts at reversing the shady tactics of the insurance companies to put the pressure back on them. You won't find me kowtowing to the corporate machine as I fight tooth and nail to make sure justice is done for every client that I represent. When you come to me for legal advice you are getting the backing of a highly experienced and efficient team that is always looking out for your best interests. So if you are ready to have a seasoned professional listen to your case and plead it in front of a court of law, give the law office of Alexander Napolin a call. After just one consultation with me, you will find out what it truly means to have a supportive and dedicated voice in your corner, fighting for your rights.?

Glendora work injury lawyer Alexander Napolin's law office opened operations in 2011 and has since represented several clients in landmark cases that demonstrate his and his team's ability to snatch a convincing victory when the odds are stacked against the victim. Alexander Napolin's notable cases include Sanchez v. Children's Dental Group and Spencer v. Stephen Paddock, MGM Resorts. Prior to starting a law firm, he earned his law degree from Pepperdine University School of Law in Malibu, California. A native of Orange County, he graduated from Troy High School and completed California State University, Fullerton in 2008 when he received two B.A. degrees, in American Studies and Business Administration. He is intimately familiar with the law in the state and has a successful track record of putting his skills to use for the benefit of those that need help the most.

Alexander Napolin has a strong opinion on the due diligence that is necessary when picking a law firm to represent oneself in a case and he explains his point of view by saying, "A lot of law firms will tout their value in the form of the amount of money they have made over the years for their clients. This is, however, very misleading as it is easy to get a skewed result if the law firm happens to get lucky in a few landmark cases. This can let a law firm market themselves by inflating their legal expertise and painting a false hope for the victim that it might be able to get a sizeable settlement for their case too. This is not true in the slightest as past performance is in no way indicative of future results in the legal domain. When choosing legal representation, you want to look at the overall level of service provided by the law firm and find someone that places your best interests above their own. Here at Napolin Law, we aim to be that trustworthy and dependable law firm that matches your needs."
