New York -- Personal injury rules have been developed in order to protect victims who have been hurt by another person. Under personal injury rules, a victim can file a personal injury case or civil lawsuit against the at-fault individual. These kinds of lawsuits entitle a victim to be recompensed for the injury done to them if it can be proven that negligence was involved. Trip and fall lawyers direct and guide their clients through the process, negotiating on their behalf and litigating these cases, when necessary.

Samantha Kucher, Esq., founding lawyer at the Kucher Law Group, has devoted both her legal education and her career to injury law. So, I went online to find a personal injury attorney and stumbled upon Samantha Kucher. I called them right away. I was glad I did because not only were they able to help me with my claim, they were also very kind throughout the whole process. They were also all very caring and lovely people. Thank you!
