Trussville, Alabama - January 13, 2022 -
Chase Pays Cash, is one of the leading cash home buyers in Birmingham, has announced that the company is buying distressed homes. The company also buys homes on the market, but which didn?t sell.

Birmingham - Chase Pays Cash has announced that the company will now buy distressed homes in and around Birmingham. The leading cash for home buying company specializes in buying homes, especially ones in less than perfect condition. The company often advertises paying cash for so-called ?ugly homes? in the city. The formal announcement by the company read, ?We are buying distressed houses Birmingham and beyond with the goal of usually closing the sale within a week.?

Distressed homes are often ones that homeowners have the toughest time selling. However, depending on the condition of a distressed home, it may still be possible to sell it to cash home buyers Birmingham. The good news is that most cash home buyers will make a pretty good offer, all things considered, on a distressed piece of property. The key for a homeowner is to initially describe the property in detail, which then merits a representative from the company to examine the home and make a formal offer.

Chase Pays Cash has said that the company aims to close sales within a week of homeowners accepting their offer. However, homeowners are generally advised by experts to seek an offer from other companies but make sure to familiarize themselves with each company?s policies.
