January 17, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Alpharetta, GA - Audiology On Call led by Stephany Sun, Au.D., CCC-A, Jenna Ahdaya, HIS, and Kelli Smith, Au.D., FAAA, is proud to announce the launching of their mobile service. The company, born out of the necessities brought on by COVID-19 brings qualified hearing care professionals directly to the patient's doorstep. Residents of Alpharetta, Roswell, and the surrounding areas can now receive hearing assessments, hearing aid repair, hearing aid fitting and hearing aid tuning from the comfort of their homes and at their convenience.

Dr. Kelli G. Smith is an Audiologist that has been helping thousands of hearing-impaired people in the Greater North Fulton area improve their lives through better hearing since 1995. Audiology involves science, technology, and intellectual creativity. She has extensive experience in prescribing and fitting hearing instruments and assistive listening devices. Dr. Smith listens to patients' concerns and needs to mutually discover the best hearing solution for them. She has worked in ENT practices as well as in private practice environments; spending over 14 years with Audiological Consultants of Atlanta in the Roswell office. She started her own company and joined forces with Audiology On Call in October 2020.

Dr. Smith earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Communication Science and Disorders from the University of Montevallo in 1991, graduating with Cum Laude honors. She received her Master's Degree in Audiology in 1993 from the University of South Carolina and completed her clinical Doctorate of Audiology degree (Au.D.) from Arizona School of Health Sciences in 2005.

Dr. Smith is licensed by the State of Georgia as an Audiologist. She is a member of the American Academy of Audiology (AAA), the Academy of Doctors of Audiology (ADA), and the Georgia Academy of Audiology (GAA), where she served on the Board as a regional representative from 2004-2007, Chair of Publications from 2004-2008, and webmaster from 2005-2011. In 2012, Dr. Smith was awarded Honors of the Association for outstanding service to GAA.

Dr. Smith is originally from Alabama and currently resides in Alpharetta, Georgia with her dog, Lulabelle. They enjoy going on pet therapy visits with the Happy Tails Pet Therapy group and she is also a volunteer with the Angels Among Us Pet Rescue group.

Her passion for helping people and her love for animals, along with her extensive experience and education is what makes Dr. Kelli Smith one of the top Audiologists in the State of Georgia. Making a commitment to give back, a portion of every hearing aid sale is donated to the Angels Among Us Pet Rescue group.

By providing a mobile service Dr. Smith and Audiology On Call quickly differentiate themselves from their competitors by delivering quality audiological care without the COVID-19 risk of crowded waiting rooms and busy offices. In addition, because Audiology On Call does not maintain a central office and the associated costs, the savings are then passed on to the patient. Interested patients should contact her through the Audiology On Call website or office phone (833) 244-3275.
