Arizona based Robert A. Dodell, Attorney at Law, is pleased to acknowledge that he still ranks among the top criminal lawyers in Scottsdale, as determined by Three Best Rated. Given his exemplary record and dedication to his clients, Dodell appreciates that his efforts are recognized by both independent organizations and the community at large.

Robert A. Dodell states, ?As an experienced DUI attorney and criminal defense lawyer, I take great pride in being considered one of the top lawyers in Scottsdale. My clients are important to my practice, and providing affordable legal services and even payment plans is helpful to each one of my clients.?

Three Best Rated, as an organization, seeks to simplify the average consumer or client?s search for the most reliable and reputable services in a given area. Their name refers to the fact that they typically bring attention exclusively to the top three providers of a specific service, eliminating all others and promoting the highlighted contenders via a dedicated page on their website. Faced with an abundance of choices, a consumer may feel overwhelmed as they browse through online listings (as would be the case if they simply looked up the service via a search engine). With Three Best Rated, however, they only have three options to take a look at, and this considerably reduces how much time they have to spend looking.

Three Best Rated has itself developed a reputation for being able to discover the best services in each niche, especially since they maintain a fairly transparent review process. For instance, Robert A. Dodell is now among the 3 Best Rated in Scottsdale for criminal lawyers because he (and the other two firms) passed a stringent 50-point inspection that took his client reviews, history, complaints, ratings and much more into consideration. Furthermore, users can quickly check which categories Dodell exceeded in by referring to the website?s included Inspection Report. He currently boasts a perfect score for the business hours he maintains, the accuracy of his contact information, the experience he brings to every case and so on. Three Best Rated also discovered that his reviews are very likely to be from actual clients, which his community can attest to.

?I cannot say enough great things about Robert,? says Gregory B. in their 5-Star Google review. ?He went above and beyond simply handling my case, which he handled professionally and as well as it could have been. He kept me posted every step of the way. He gave me a clear understanding of all of my options, as well as any potential advantages or obstacles that would surface. He gave me insightful and well-intentioned recommendations, always with my best interests and wishes in mind.?

Further on in the review, the client adds that, ?He also took a personal interest in my well being, reaching out to me, like a family member, close friend or a loved one would, if he did not hear from me for some time. He was crucial in reassuring my family that all would be well, while not violating any of the privacy and confidentiality afforded to my by attorney client privilege.?

Given the areas he practices in (Criminal Defense, DUI, Domestic Violence, Juvenile Defense, Juvenile Dependencies and Adoption), Dodell believes that every case must be approached with respect to each client as an individual with their own needs and vulnerabilities. When they get in touch to request his assistance, he explains, a client is typically dealing with one of the most stressful times in their life. As such, Dodell makes it his mission to set them at ease and ensure they understand every aspect of their case and its possible outcomes. This, in combination with his decades of experience and extensive legal expertise, serves to give the case the best chance of a positive outcome.

Recently, Dodell has been illustrating his commitment to his community by making himself available during the Covid-19 pandemic. Since their legal issues are not going to wait until the pandemic is over, he says that he considers it his duty to offer people in need the best legal representation possible ? and to ensure they have a fair day in court. Notably, he is also taking every measure to keep himself and his clients safe from exposure.
