The company's IT and web development experts produced the article that was published on Page Kits' website. The article served as a guide for website owners looking to improve user experience by finding and fixing broken links.

One of the key points in the new publication is the reasons broken links may occur. The guide primarily focuses on the steps to fix broken links using the SEMrush Site Audit tool. It also includes an analysis of how broken links can affect a website and its SEO. The guide provides a comprehensive overview of finding and fixing broken links.
