Brooklyn Park, MN ? Vikings Trophies, a leading retailer of acrylic and glass awards, has announced that the company will soon operate under a new name, Alta Honors. The company?s operations, however, will remain at 6248 Lakeland Ave N #102, Minneapolis, MN 55428.

Viking Trophies first opened their doors in 1969 and has been a prominent member of their community in Brooklyn Park since relocating to the area in 1988. Over the years, the company has been recognized for its outstanding work as well as its impressive level of customer service. The word ?Alta? means higher in many languages. Therefore, with a clear vision in mind to both continue providing best-in-class service to their current clients as well as to elevate themselves as premier partners for crafting appreciation items with expertise, dedication, and creativity ? the new company name was chosen.

Along with a change in name, the company will also reveal a redesigned logo that combines the symbol for ?higher,? a star, and the letter A. The new logo represents both positivity and brightness as well as the fact that the company will continue to be a shining star in both service and performance.

Alta Honors will help ?celebrate and elevate others with the highest quality symbols of appreciation. These ?symbols? go far beyond the materials from which they are made. We understand the significance of every presentation, be it medallions bestowed upon 7-year-old athletes, or a crystal statuette handed to a revered hero?they all matter greatly to us,? according to a company spokesperson.

From dazzling corporate awards to eye-catching custom apparel, Alta Honors will continue to specialize in helping clients find just the right items, at the right price, and customized with the right message.
