

Inaugural NFTConnect Conference in Mesa, AZ Features Set by DJ Snoopadelic (Snoop Dogg)

February 04, 2022

FINDLAY, OH - February 04, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

On February 22-23, 2022, the first NFTConnect conference will be held at Bell Bank Park, Arizona. The event will dispel myths and inform the audience by featuring over 25+ speakers. These speakers include crypto-influencers, local politicians, and various blockchain-related topic experts. Topics covered include cryptocurrency, nonfungible tokens (NFTs), blockchain, and decentralized autonomous organization (DAOs). Additionally, future innovations of Web 3.0 will be shared with the attendees.

Deanna Wheeler, a universal music artist, will be the opening act to add to the excitement of integrating music into the digital asset NFT world. The featured act is DJ Snoopadelic (Snoop Dogg), who will DJ a set at the VIP party on February 23, 2022, at 7 pm.

NFT and cryptocurrencies utilized within blockchain technology have been referred to as the dawn of a new tomorrow. There is a new conversation when understanding how Web 3.0, aka a virtual world, or a metaverse, can be immersed into real life. These areas include business, entertainment, recreation, and personal life, adding in a family's wants, desires, and needs.

This NFTConnect conference brings together a community. The community combines crypto experts with novices to help move all to a better, more profound understanding. As a high priority, the speakers will cover the basics and safety of this technology. Furthermore, sessions will explore deeper dives into specific topics for the more advanced.

There are topics for all NFT enthusiasts, from techies to deep thinkers to newbies just taking their first peek into this space. At this conference, the ticket holders will get a deep insight into the dos and don'ts of starting a project within the blockchain community. Onboarding for project adoption will be presented.

The future of Web 3.0 will be outlined as well as a focus on security and safety in the virtual spaces as presented by Balancer Labs. Explore the utility and functionality of NFT's will give the audience the ins and outs. Most intriguing will be the new trends and significant breakthroughs in innovation.

"This is a fast start event suitable for beginners to experts as the quality of the speakers and sponsors ranges among depth and reach. Furthermore, local Arizona politicians will be speaking up on the integration of governmental policy, application of use, and the various political definitions described as views and values. There is a sense of pride to have this opportunity to enlighten those that attend," said Josh Mimms, spokesperson for NFTConnect.

There are general and VIP admission tickets to attend the event that may be minted on the website <http://www.NFTConnect.one>. However, those new to crypto-technology can invest in tickets via traditional credit cards. The investment for tickets is .25 eth for general and .5 eth for VIP, which fluctuates daily based on the market value. Tickets are capped at one thousand (1,000) attendees.
