Maryland based company, Ron's Amazing Products, has recently earned a gold star through the company's online eBay store. They have released a statement saying that the awarding of the star means a lot to their business, and that they owe their success to the multitude of loyal customers who frequent the site.

At the company's eBay store, which can be found at <http://www.ebay.com/usr/ronsamazing>, customers can see the various products sold through Ron's Amazing Products, including the Amazing Pen Camera. Currently, the store holds a high rating among consumers with positive, five star ranking on all reviews. One such review included the following comment: "Excellent seller. Item as described. Fast shipping. Will order again."

The star system on eBay is used by consumers and other businesses to verify the quality of products and services offered by shippers. Different stars hold different meanings, with no star indicating negative feedback, or less than 10 ratings. The gold star represents a feedback rating between 10 and 49. That means 10 to 49 positive reviews or rankings were left on an eBay store site.

Not only do the stars allow consumers to recognize merchants who have offered positive experiences, it also allows other businesses to recognize active merchants on the site. The more active a business is, the higher their star count becomes.

Ron's Amazing Products has been in operation through eBay since October 2014, making this year the company's first anniversary, as well as a celebration of reaching gold star status. The company has been open in this ongoing appreciation of customer interaction, and invites all current and potential customers to leave their own feedback after ordering from the site. The team at Ron's hopes that this ongoing relationship between buyers and sellers will help the business to continue evolving, producing only the highest quality products for their customers.
