Ronnie Mabra, founder and managing attorney of The Mabra Law Firm, has been named to the 2022 Top 100 Georgia Super Lawyers list. Readers can check out the announcement from the law firm by heading over to this link: <https://themabralawfirmatlanta.business.site/posts/3088167295685503281>.

Super Lawyers was established in 1991 with the goal of highlighting the outstanding work of legal professionals who are trailblazers in their respective areas of expertise all over the country. The website has a patented multiphase selection process that outputs a credible, comprehensive, and diverse list of outstanding attorneys. This year, Super Lawyers has picked Ronnie Mabra to join the ranks of its Top 100 list from the state of Georgia.

When asked about his reaction to being selected to the prestigious list, Ronnie says, "I'm deeply humbled by this honor, and I want to thank Super Lawyers for bestowing this distinction on to me. My team and I do our best in every case to serve the hard-working people of the great state of Georgia, and being recognized by Super Lawyers validates all the effort that we put in on a daily basis. This award is bigger than just me, and I would like to thank the dedicated team at The Mabra Law Firm for having my back and delivering their best work every single day. I would not have this recognition without their support.?

Ronnie Mabra has had an illustrious career in public service, both as an attorney and as a politician. He served as a member of the Georgia House of Representatives from 2012 to 2016. Apart from this most recent recognition from Super Lawyers, Ronnie Mabra's career is adorned with accolades from some of the best law publications in the country and many other public institutions of note. He has earned several awards in his long career, including the PELPAC Lawmaker of the Year, National Bar Association 40 Under 40, University of Georgia 40 Under 40, Clayton County NAACP Community Service Award, and more.
