February 2022: Processing Card releases an online report that reveals the best mobile credit card processing solutions of 2022. The article, published on Processing Card's website, was produced by the company's financial experts. The report was released to aid anyone looking for mobile payment solutions.

It is estimated that the number of mobile payment users will grow to 760 million by the end of 2020 due to the popularity of mobile credit card processing and mobile payment solutions. The popularity of mobile payments and mobile credit cards results in more providers popping up and entering the market for public use. Not every mobile payment and credit card solution is on the same level, which might confuse new users' selection process. This report was designed to simplify this process by providing reliable information on the top mobile payment processors.

According to Processing Card, their experts conducted thorough market research to compile the report. The publication aimed to simplify the selection process for users by guiding them through the best mobile credit card processing solutions of 2022. The report explained the key features of each of the ten processors to make the decision-making process easier for users. Readers can find the full report by visiting their page at
