

High Risk Income Disability Insurance Specialist Announces New Underwriting Capacity

November 10, 2015

November 10, 2015 -
Hawkins Wealth Advisory LLC, based in Phoenix, Arizona, has announced an underwriting capacity that allows them to cover risks that traditional insurance carriers cannot or will not insure.

Robert E. Hawkins, founder of Hawkins Wealth Advisory, states, "Regardless of whether your needs are personal or for business, domestic or international, Hawkins Wealth Advisory can be of service to you." He says that his agency specializes in finding coverage for high risk, and high income individuals to protect them should a disability occur in their future.

The company provides a contract guarantee. "Protection is a vital part of balancing your insurance portfolio, and we can set anyone up with high levels of life, accident, and permanent disability coverage," states Hawkins.

The agency offers plans that can provide clients with protection for business succession, college savings, and retirement planning. Hawkins states that with their current underwriting criteria, they can cover more individuals, businesses and families than other agencies, because they offer high risk guarantees that give coverage to those who can normally not get it, or who would otherwise pay exorbitant fees for the coverage that they need.

He explains that they can provide renewable disability insurance for amounts between $50,000 and $250,000 per month, in addition to accidental death and dismemberment benefits in the same amounts, regardless of the risks posed by an individual's job or activities. "We can cover you, when others simply cannot, or will not," declares Hawkins. He says that they have assisted many individuals in gaining coverage, even when other agencies turn them down because of the dangers of their profession, age, past health, and high incomes.

The company can also provide severance, salary continuation, and professional sports benefits. Hawkins states that those interested should click here to read full details of what their agency can offer to individuals, and that coverage type and amount is based on individual circumstances.

Those interested in learning more about the agency, and the coverage that they can provide to high risk individuals, can visit them on their official website or at https://www.linkedin.com/pub/paul-becker/103/863/a94.
