February 24, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Athens GA Homebuyers, a locally owned Athens, GA company, wants to warn homeowners in Atlanta about the rising cases of dishonest home buyers who have been finding ways to get possession of the property and even bulldoze it down. One such case was reported by a woman in Atlanta where her home, which was in a prime location, was torn down after they had stolen her deed. She reported that she had no idea that strangers had taken possession of her property until she came home one day to find a bulldozer already tearing down her property. Athens GA Homebuyers, which is a reputable home buyer, can help homeowners avoid such tragedy. They recommend that homeowners get in touch with them, especially if they are in foreclosure or are afraid of losing their home. They have recently moved into the Atlanta area as reported in their recent press release: <https://www.pressadvantage.com/story/48149-athens-ga-home-buyers-announces-moving-into-the-atlanta-area>.

There are a number of factors that make the home buying service provided by Athens GA Homebuyers stand out among the crowd. These include: the fact that they can provide the home seller with a quick and fair offer for the property; no commissions to be paid; no fees to be paid; no obligation on the part of the home seller; and the fact that they are ready to buy the property in as-is condition, which means there would be not need for expensive repairs before being able to sell the property.

Scott Corbett, a spokesperson for Athens GA Homebuyers, says, "In selling your house in Athens, our house buying process is simple. We will buy your house fast for cash. The first step is to share some information about the property and have a quick conversation with one of our home buying specialists. Next, we do some quick research and are able to get you a fair price range offer within days, sometimes even on the spot. Finally, if the offer looks good, you pick when to close and get paid in cash."

Selling a house to Athens GA Homebuyers is a simple three-step process. The first step is to provide relevant information about the property to them, such as the property address and some info regarding the home's current condition. Based on the information provided, they will conduct some research about the property. In the second step, they will provide a fair, cash offer for the home. If the homeowner agrees to the offer, they will proceed to the third step, which is to ask the home seller for their preferred closing date and then they will prepare all the paperwork to allow the home seller to get paid. There will be no commissions or closing costs for the home seller to pay, which means they will really get the amount offered. Meanwhile, it is important to note that they are also buying houses in Gainesville. More info on this at <https://athensgahomebuyers.com/locations/gainesville-ga/>.

The home buying offered by Athens GA Homebuyers provides homeowners and other property owners the opportunity to get rid of a property that they don't want. These include: houses that require substantial repair; houses that are in danger of foreclosure; homes that have been damaged by fire or flood; homeowners who are experiencing difficulties in making the monthly payments; homes with tax liens or code violations; inherited houses and those with probate issues; downsizing or job relocation; and need to sell a home due to death or divorce.
