Here, consumers can also read what other shoppers have had to say about the company and their products through testimonials and reviews. One satisfied customer wrote about the Phoenix electric grinder, saying: "I absolutely love this product. First of all, I love the way the grinder looks on my counter and the fact that the cord coils up in the bottom of the grinder. And secondly I love the results I get when I grind coffee beans and nuts. I use the grinder all the time because it is so handy and does such a great job. I got a brush with it and that makes the clean up a snap."
