February 2022: KRDO TV releases a new article that discusses the top digital trends of 2022. The report, published on KRDO TV's website, was compiled using expert opinions on the topic. The report was released amid the rise in digital marketing around the globe. The full report can be found here.

As technology develops and evolves, skilled professionals are in high demand. Businesses and individuals alike need to get trained and onboard with these emerging technologies early. Businesses should keep up-to-date with the latest trends in digital marketing to successfully market themselves. The publication analyzes how the digital marketing landscape will advance in 2022. The experts in the report explained the digital marketing trends, both old and new, that are expected to lead in marketing campaigns.

For the report, digital tech experts were consulted for their professional views on digital trends. Business experts were also quoted in the article. The final compilation and review of the report were overseen by KRDO TV's team of business and marketing experts. The experts interviewed for this article discussed the latest digital trends in marketing. The reports found nine key trends expected to lead the marketing industry this year.

Since its inception as a business advisor, KRDO TV has provided information, advice, research, reviews, comparisons, and analyses for helping businesses and entrepreneurs set up and run their business ventures successfully. The report was published as part of their regular research on business and marketing for their readers.
