February 2022: Assured Standard releases an online guide that explains the importance of employment practices liability insurance for businesses. The article, published on Assured Standard?s website, was produced by the company?s insurance experts. The guide was released to aid businesses in legally and financially protecting themselves by finding the right policy. The full guide can be found here.

The employment litigation practice is becoming more common as lawsuits are becoming part of doing business in the age of litigation. Businesses are generally not covered by general liability insurance against employee claims such as discrimination, breach of contract, and wrongful termination. This guide was designed to highlight the importance of employment practices liability insurance by providing detailed information on the key points of the policy.

According to Assured Standard, their experts conducted thorough market research to compile the guide. The publication aimed to simplify the use and benefits of employment practices liability insurance by guiding readers through all that it covers under its policies. The guide explained costs, deductibles, and policy limits to give a clear understanding of how the insurance works.

Since the launch of their site, Assured Standard has provided online resources and detailed research, reviews, analyses, and guides to inform readers about all the tools and knowledge needed to make the right insurance choices for their business. The guide was published as part of their regular research on business insurance solutions. ?We hope to simplify the complexities of insurance through this guide and help businesses learn more about employment practices and liability insurance to see if it?s right for their business,? said Chairman and CEO of Assured Standard Arthur Williamson. He believes businesses getting B2B insurance need to have all the options available to them so that they can weigh the pros and cons of each policy before making an informed decision.

In its effort to help people with their business and trucking insurance queries, Assured Standard takes on all necessary research for crafting insurance policies and provides quotes on the best options. The company offers advice, expert analysis, and practical tips on insurance policies to help businesses choose the right policy for their company. It also discusses industry insights about business and trucking insurance, covering different types, from general liability to worker?s compensation and physical damage coverage.

?Any business needs insurance, and there are many factors to consider before deciding on the level of protection. Here is where we come in; we take on all the heavy lifting and explore the market to find the best coverage options available,? said Williamson.
