March 02, 2022

March 02, 2022 -
The Law Offices of Purav Bhatt have announced that they will be providing criminal lawyer services to people facing retail theft criminal charges.

According to the top attorney at The Law Offices of Purav Bhatt. ?In many cases I handle, people make bad decisions and steal things. Occasionally, there is a misunderstanding and false charges are brought against innocent and good people. The chances of getting a retail theft or shoplifting charge reduced to a less serious offense or dismissed depends greatly on the experience of the Chicago Retail Theft Attorney representing you. In Illinois, theft is prosecuted under 720 ILCS 5/16-1. A person commits the offense of theft when he or she knowingly obtains or exerts unauthorized control over the property of the owner or obtains control over the property through deception or threat. Additionally, you can be charged with theft if you possess stolen property and know the property was stolen.?

The site also explains what is considered thet, ?A theft crime is a criminal act of taking another individual?s personal property without the individual?s consent. In Illinois, theft crimes are classified as felonies or misdemeanor offenses. A misdemeanor is charged when one takes another person?s property (valued at below $500) without the person?s consent. Misdemeanor theft is punishable by up to a year in jail and a $2500 fine. A felony is charged when a person takes another person?s property (valued at $500 or greater) without the person?s consent. Felony theft crimes can result in the offender being sentenced with over a year of prison time if convicted.?
