

Dakota County Divorce Lawyer Urges Community To Seek Realistic Outcomes

March 07, 2022

EAGAN, MN - March 07, 2022 -
Eagan, MN based Amundson Law Office is sharing insight on divorce cases and what each party should aim to achieve. Lisa Amundson, the firm?s principal attorney and an expert in Family Law, typically encourages her clients to focus on aiming for practical outcomes and moving forward. This will help keep the divorce proceedings on track and minimize the opportunity for emotional issues to crop up.

The firm states, ?Even in an emotionally charged situation, it is crucial to have a lawyer who focuses on securing your future and takes a sound approach to legal decision-making. At Amundson Law Office, we understand that going through a divorce is not easy. That is why we strive to advocate for your best interests in the legal proceedings so you can focus on establishing your new life. Lisa Amundson will work with you to understand your situation, be available to answer any questions you may have and keep you updated on the status of your case."

When considering or moving forward with a divorce, it may be helpful for an individual to look up accounts from others who have been in similar circumstances before. This can give them some idea of what to expect from their own case (and what can be done to avoid certain pitfalls). As an example, Amundson points to a recent review of the firm that was shared on their Google profile.

?My ex-husband and I had a pretty nasty legal battle,? says Amanda C. ?Long story short, I retained Lisa. She is by far the best. She always fought for what was best for myself and my kids. She was always prepared, attentive and ready to go to war for me. I can?t even express how amazing she really is, but if you are ever looking for a lawyer, she?s the real deal. I don?t know where I would be without her today.?

According to Amundson, this review describes a situation that many people ? especially parents ? find themselves in. Divorces can be exceedingly difficult to get through, particularly if the other party is uncooperative or abusive. With an experienced female divorce lawyer by their side, however, clients will always be aware of their rights and what protections they are entitled to under the law. Furthermore, she advises her clients to avoid getting themselves pulled into arguments and so on. Instead, they should make an effort to drive all communication through her, their legal representative, as this can ensure they will not have to deal with the other party directly.

The crucial factor is for the client to have a strong, assertive advocate who is willing to fight on their behalf. Amundson adds that it is highly inadvisable to enter into divorce proceedings with the intent of exacting vengeance or damaging the other party in some way. A divorce is a legal issue, and the objective should be to reach a suitable compromise that both parties can accept. In Amundson?s cases, she always seeks to ensure her client?s rights are respected and that they are not taken advantage of, either due to an unfamiliarity with the law or what they are entitled to.

On a more personal note, those going through a divorce should make every attempt to keep their interactions as civil as possible if there are children involved. Both parents should seek to ensure their children are looked after, for instance, and will continue to have the support they need following the divorce (both financially and emotionally). While the latter tends to fall under Amundson?s purview with less frequency, she acknowledges that parents who make an effort to hurt each other during a divorce invariably hurt their children as well. As such, it is in everyone?s best interests to keep their emotions in check while discussions are underway.

Amundson Law Office recognizes that every client is different, and their lawyer must be carefully selected in order to ensure they get a suitable outcome. To facilitate an open discussion and give potential clients an opportunity to measure the value of the firm?s contributions, Amundson Law Office offers a free initial consultation to everyone in their community who may be facing any family law issue, including divorce.
