The Law Office of Purav Bhatt, a law firm based in Chicago, IL that handles criminal law cases, is offering a free case evaluation. The firm handles criminal law cases in the State of Illinois. Attorney Purav Bhatt, who was a former prosecutor, offers his services to people who have been arrested or charged with a criminal offense. He has also been appointed as Adjunct Professor at The John Marshall Law School at the University of Illinois-Chicago. He has been rated 10/10. And his experience as a prosecutor appears to be an advantage for his and his clients because his years of working the police, detectives, and investigators in building criminal cases against defendants, he has developed the ability to see any deficiencies and issues in the cases against his clients.

Attorney Purav Bhatt has a proven track record of wining cases and has earned the reputation of being one of the leading Chicago criminal lawyers. He has achieved success in hundreds of bench and jury trials related to drug offenses, animal crimes, weapons charges, thefts and gang related offenses, and violent crimes.

One example of a criminal case where Attorney Bhatt was successful in defending his client was a charge of possession of a weapon by a felon. The alleged crime has a possible penalty of four to 15 years in prison. The defendant was attending a party when he was arrested by the police who had a search warrant. The police claimed that they saw the defendant carrying and trying to hide a pistol in the kitchen. Through careful preparation and cross-examination of the State?s witnesses, he was able to expose a deficiency in the prosecution?s case and the defendant was found not guilty on all charges related to the pistol.

Another area where Attorney Bhatt can help is in driving under the influence (DUI) cases. People who have been charged with DUI will need to have a good DUI criminal defense attorney because the State of Illinois has some of the most severe punishments for DUI. Whether the cause is alcohol, prescription medication, or illegal drugs, a driver who is arrested for DUI faces the risks of criminal charges, stiff fines, and the possibility of losing the right to drive a vehicle, temporarily or permanently.

For those who are asked to pull over by a police officer, it is important to note that they have been trained to detect any signs of impairment or any indications that the driver may be driving under the influence. Knowing what police officers are actually looking for is one way of avoiding getting arrested and charged with DUI. If a driver is asked by a police officer to pull over due to a traffic violation, the police officer will try to detect the smell of drugs or alcohol. He will also scan the interior of the car for plastic cups, cans or bottles and any other signs that the driver may have been drinking. Even a wristband from a festival or bar can be regarded by the police officer as a hint that the driver may have been drinking.

Founded in 2010, The Law Office of Purav Bhatt has established as its goal to provide cost-effective and aggressive criminal defense representation for all clients. Attorney Purav Bhatt defends those who have been charged with weapons charges, federal crimes, DUI and traffic violations, robbery and burglary, theft and shoplifting, drug offenses, domestic violence, assault and battery, and other misdemeanors and felonies. He can also provide legal assistance with regards to expungements / sealing and probation violations. He benefits from his past experience as Cook County State?s Attorney that provided him with a better understanding of the various goals and objectives of the prosecution. He is able to detect any loop holes in the case of the prosecution, having worked with investigators, detectives, and police officers in preparing for criminal cases against the accused, allowing him to build a strong defense for his clients.
