March 14, 2022 -
Powerpro Carpet Cleaning Of NJ, a leading carpet and upholstery cleaning company in New Jersey is emphasizing their gratitude and commitment to U.S. military members and their families by offering special reduced rates for armed service members. While the company has always supported military members and their families, they believe there is need to constantly remind those who volunteered to sacrifice themselves and their families to guarantee Americans the freedoms enjoyed, that they do not go unnoticed.

Company owner, Rich Moore, had this to say, ?While it has been a tough past year for most everyone, our military members sacrificed themselves and families long before these recent trials we are all dealing with. Being separated from friends and family is something they have endured even before COVID. We should all be mindful of that fact, and take time to thank them with deeds as we continue to pray for them and their families.?

Powerpro Carpet Cleaning Of NJ is a family-owned business that offers some of the best carpet and upholstery cleaning services in the North and Central New Jersey areas, as well as the surrounding communities. With nearly 40 years of experience, the company specializes in dry-steam carpet cleaning and upholstery cleaning. The company offers free estimates and stands behind their work with a 100% satisfaction guarantee. Their technicians are uniformed, polite, and are trained to complete all services according to Inspection Institution of Cleaning and Restoration (IICRC) standards. The Institute of Inspection, Cleaning, and Restoring Certification, or IICRC, is a non-profit group that develops and publishes standards about how to clean and restore things in a safe way. In addition to its standards and certifications, the IICRC also has a lot of good advice for the customer.

In support of military members and their families, Powerpro Carpet Cleaning Of NJ offers free upgrade to organic cleaning products, immediate appointments or same day service if needed, 25% discount for military members and friends that also live on the same base. Military members and their friend(s) that arrange to have their carpets service on the same day will both be provide a 35% discounted rate.

Company owner, Rich Moore, had this to say, ?We have completed many jobs on military bases and have been cleared to work on most installations in New Jersey. We are always happy to provide services the military and consider their families our extended family.?

Powerpro Carpet Cleaning Of NJ is being received exceptionally well by the communities they serve. The evidence of the quality of their services are clear from some of the online reviews received from past customers.

One previous customer, Janice Byrd wrote, ?I needed a cleaning company near me that cleaned carpets, rugs and tile and grout in New Jersey. They came to my home and gave me a free estimate, they cleaned everything with Organic Cleaning and everything was clean, sanitized, and looking new again. I recommend PowerPro to anyone in NJ that needs carpet, rugs, upholstery or tile and grout cleaning.?

Donna Holden, another recent customer wrote, "The team that came was very professional and did an amazing job, especially Anthony. My dining room chairs look almost new. I was contemplating on throwing them out but I don?t have to now, they got a lot of old stains out on a very light colored fabric. and my couch came out great too. I would highly recommend this company." Both previous customers rated the company with fiver stars. It should be noted, fiver stars is the highest rating a company can receive from a customer on their Google Business Profile.
