The managing partner at Dependable Homebuyers says, ?We are a solution driven home buying company. Helping our clients find alternative ways to sell their homes quickly and for cash is our priority. We are not real estate agents, we are professional home buyers. We have a very simple process that is designed to help homeowners sell their houses fast without any hassles, fees, or commissions. We ensure that our team has what it takes to help guide our clients through the process of selecting the right option regarding the sale of your home anywhere in the state and in Baltimore, MD for top dollar.?

He continues, ?Once we provide a fair cash offer for your home, the ball is in your court. You have the power to take your life in a new direction if you choose to accept our offer or risk the conventional house selling method. Remember, we buy houses in Baltimore, MD in as-is condition. Whether the house is over-leveraged, in foreclosure, has liens, condemned, has health department violations, fire damaged, or not maintained, we are still willing to buy it from you, as long as the property complies with our buying criteria.?

The reason to bypass an agent and sell to Dependable Homebuyers is simple - agents often take a large commission (usually around 6%) of the sale price, which can amount to a lot of money lost. In addition, they are notorious for taking a long time to complete a sale - in some cases, up to two or three months. This can be a major issue for people who need to sell quickly, for whatever reason. Dependable Homebuyers, on the other hand, charges all closing costs and does not drawn out the sale with any type of contingency clause. This means that the homeowner can be assured of a quick, seamless sale without any of the hassles or headaches typically associated with selling a home.

Dependable Homebuyers is committed to helping homeowners in Baltimore and the surrounding areas sell their homes quickly, easily, and for top dollar. There are a number of things that make Dependable Homebuyers stand out among the crowd of cash home buyers. The most important thing to consider is that a home seller will receive a cash offer in just 72 hours, and the transaction may be completed within 14 days after the seller has accepted it. Furthermore, they will simply do an easy house inspection and make sure that their offer is as competitive and fair as possible. The homeowner will not be required to make any repairs or clean the house since they will take a property in any condition. Because they can avoid paying any unnecessary appraisal costs, real estate agent commissions, miscellaneous fees, or application expenses, the seller may expect to receive the whole amount being offered without making any deductions.

The process of selling a house to Dependable Homebuyers is simple. The homeowner accomplishes their Sell A Home Fast Form and submits it, after which a real estate solutions specialist from Dependable Homebuyers will contact the seller, which is usually within a span of 24 hours. In some instances, they will need to ask for additional information. They will also conduct research on the specific property and then discuss the various details with the property owner. In some cases, all of that can be done over the phone, but in most cases, they will schedule a time for viewing the property. After taking a look at the home, they will provide the homeowner with a no-obligation, fair, all cash offer within a span of at most 72 hours. In some cases, they can close escrow and then transfer the agreed upon amount of money to the seller in as little as 14 days.

Dependable Homebuyers is a real estate investment and solutions firm that purchases houses directly from the sellers. They will generally acquire the property for cash in most circumstances. However, if listing the home would be the greatest solution, they can also do that, and they will provide the owner with contact information for a recommended competent real estate professional.
