March 14, 2022 -
March 2022: Prudential Cal presents a new report that explains how to get into real estate and establish a career as an investor without owning property. The report, published on Prudential Cal?s website, was compiled using expert opinions on the topic. The article was published on Prudential Cal?s website amid the boom in the real estate market to highlight the best ways to invest in real estate. The full report can be found here.

The Real Estate market has more often than not posed as an excellent investment opportunity. Last year alone, the housing market went off the charts, with the stock gaining $2.5 trillion in value. The real estate market has always proved a lucrative investment; however, many people feel owning a property is a major hassle. This publication addresses the concern of owning a property to start as a real estate investor.

For the report, real estate experts were consulted for their professional views on the best way to get started in real estate without owning a property. Financial experts were also quoted in the article. The final compilation and review of the report were overseen by Prudential Cal?s own team of financial and real estate experts.

The report was published as part of their regular research on real estate and investments. For more information on making money in real estate, readers can visit their page at https://www.prudentialcal.com/how-to-make-money-in-real-estate-without-owning-a-property/.

?Real estate has always been a solid investment, and there are many ways to get into the game without having to handle the hassle of owning real estate. The publication analyzes trusts (REITs), working with realtors, subletting, investing, and providing financing as options for those who wish to start investing in the business without the responsibilities of owning a piece of real estate. Our report is backed by expert analysis to provide an authentic and transparent analysis,? said John Carlucci, Founder and CEO of Prudential Cal?s website.
