

Owner of Awards Shop in Brooklyn Park Attends International Awards & Personalization Expo

March 18, 2022

March 18, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Brooklyn Park, MN ? Zenon Dawydowycz, the owner of Alta Honors (formerly Viking Trophies), which is a leading retailer of corporate awards, attended the International Awards & Personalization Expo in Nevada last month.

The International Awards and Personalization Expo began on February 22 in Las Vegas and ran until February 25. The Paris Las Vegas Hotel & Casino hosted the event, which was organized by the Awards & Personalization Association and sponsored by fifteen different companies. The purpose of the conference was to offer personalized networking options, industry-specific training seminars, and access to new goods for both suppliers and merchants.

The Awards & Personalization Association website stated that the 2022 expo was imperative to both awards/personalization suppliers and retailers and helped to renew the exceptional level of camaraderie of their attendees. The Awards & Personalization team also followed up with a thank you to the individuals and businesses who helped make the expo possible, as well as those in attendance, via Facebook at the conclusion of the expo: It's been our absolute pleasure hosting the 2022 International Awards & Personalization Expo at Paris Las Vegas. We would like to thank our dedicated volunteers, our show sponsors for their incredible support, and all the retailers and suppliers for attending. You are what makes this event special. We'll see you next year. Au revoir!?

The date for the 2023 expo has already been set and will take place from February 7 to February 10 and the Paris Las Vegas will once again host the event.
