Reserving a bouncy house or tent or anything else is incredibly easy with Party Rentals R Us and their online reservation system. The process can be completed in three simple steps. The first is to add the desired items to the cart and then pick a date, followed by a start and end time. Once this step is complete, a customer can then proceed to check out and fill out all the necessary information regarding the date. Then, they can make a $15 deposit to reserve all their items for the day. Party Rentals R Us will deliver the equipment ? clean, disinfected and on time ? on the day of the event (and pick the equipment up after). The company makes hosting a party the easiest job in the world, and they are always looking for ways to improve the experience for their customers.

One of the company?s most popular services is their bounce house rental service. The company also makes an effort to offer the most reasonable rates in the area. Their wide selection and excellent rental deals make the Long Island party rental company the ideal choice for any occasion. Party Rentals R Us has received a number of reviews from happy customers, many of which which can be found here: https://www.google.com/maps?cid=14175048190163464104.

Savitha Pal says about their experience with Party Rentals R Us, ?We needed to rent tables and chairs for our son's 4th birthday party. We ordered them within a week of the party, and the whole process was not only easy, but contactless. I was able to order the rental online for the date and time I wanted. On other sites, I had to make phone calls and wait for people to respond, sometimes not getting any response. All the tables and chairs were in great condition, and dropoff and pickup were pretty much contactless as well. I only had to call once to confirm the tip that I added to the order online. Thanks for everything! Will be renting from you again.?

Gina Rizzo, another Long Island customer, says in their review, ?We rented a popcorn machine, tables and chairs for my son's backyard birthday party. Party Rentals R Us called me in advance to confirm my rental and time. They delivered on time and picked up my rentals the next day. Everything went so smoothly. All of my party guests loved the popcorn machine. I would definitely rent from them again!?
