There are a number of things that differentiate the bounce house rental services offered by Franklin Inflatables from that of similar providers. First, making reservations at the Franklin Inflatables website is quick and easy. Reservations can be made from any device with their online reservation system. A customer simply needs to enter the date and times of the event, and then browse through the various rental items that are presented based on their availability on the chosen date. After completing the selections, the customer simply clicks "add to cart" and a rental confirmation will be sent to the customer via email. Those who want to know more about the company and their inflatable rental services can visit their Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/franklininflatables.com>.

A second distinctive factor is that they offer free delivery. The no delivery fee is part of the deal for customers in Williamson and surrounding counties. For those who are not sure whether their location is part of the company's service area, they simply give them a call and inquire about deliveries to their area.

Another important distinctive factor with Franklin Inflatables is that they offer six-hour rentals to make sure that customers have enough time to enjoy and have fun with the inflatables. For those who want a longer rental period, the rental price will increase by only 20 percent of the total price beyond six hours. And for customers who prefer all-day rentals which are more than 12 hours, a 60 percent increase in the rental price will be added. For multi-day rentals, the increase will be 100 percent. For those who want to benefit from a 10 percent reduction in price, they can take advantage of the Wednesday night rentals.

Customers have mostly highly positive reviews for Franklin Inflatables. For example, Paul J. gave them five stars and said, "Grant and Franklin Inflatables did an amazing job for our 3yo bday party this last weekend! Communication was top notch and setup/breakdown was perfect. Grant even went an extra step and placed our curb stones around the garden bed in our backyard after packing up the bounce house. I cannot recommend this company enough! Look no further than Franklin Inflatables for your next event."
