Bounce houses can take a children's birthday party or any other occasion with kids to a completely new level. Bounce houses have been gaining in popularity at kids parties because they are more entertaining and they are safer compared to trampolines. And they allow the kids to expend the enormous energy that they have plus they will surely have fun. Furthermore, rental companies like Crazy Town Inflatables have allowed practically every family to have the chance to try using bounce houses during parties without having to make a huge investment by buying one.

Also available are water slides, which are popular during the hot summer months. Examples are the: 13' Mini Volcano Water Slide; 15' Fireblast Water Slide; 15' Purple Crush Water Slide; 15' Ruby Crush Water Slide; 18' Blue Crush Water Slide; 18' Cascade Crush Water Slide; 18' Dual Purple Wave Water Slide; 18' Dual Swirl Water Slide; 18' Fireblast Water Slide; 18' Laguna Waves Water Slide; 18' Rocky Marble Water Slide; 22' Blazing Tides Water Slide; 22' Dual Tropical Water Slide; 22' Lava Waves Water Slide; and 22' Tsunami Water Slide.

Meanwhile, they would like to inform customers that their price includes set up and delivery. However, additional fees may be charged for locations farther out from their mentioned service area. Their standard rental times from from 10:00 am to 6:00 pm. However, this can be adjusted based on the customer's preference and the availability of the item. For those who want to hold the event in a park, most parks don't have electricity, which is why they should rent a generator or bring their own generator. The surface for setting up the inflatable should ideally be grass, but it can also be asphalt, dirt, or concrete. Any type of rocks should be avoided because the constant rubbing can wear down the vinyl of the inflatables.

Crazy Town Inflatables LLC was founded on the philosophy that a child's party should be a fun and no hassle experience with party rental available at competitive prices. As such, they are ready to provide bounce houses, water slides, inflatable games, and and the like, not just on special occasions, but at all times throughout the year.
