April 05, 2022 -

Pensacola, FL - JM Roofing Company of Pensacola, a residential roofing contractor based in Pensacola, FL, is proud to announce that GAF has chosen them to be a Factory-Certified Contractor. It is important to note that GAF tests thousands of roofers across the US but only selects the best, licensed, and insured roofers. Only 7 percent of roofers in North America as invited by GAF to become GAF Certified? Contractors. This certification can only be earned and cannot be bought.

A roofing contractor must have at least three years of experience to qualify for the certification, which has to be renewed annually. This GAF certification requires the roofer to be properly licensed and insured; highly qualified; and reputable and trustworthy. Being highly qualified means being GAF trained, up to date on the latest practices and technology, high property owner job satisfaction ratings, and capability to provide the strongest GAF warranties.

The GAF certification also means better warranties, including the GAF Shingle & Accessory Limited Warranty, which is a lifetime limited warranty term and 10-year coverage where GAF covers both installation labor costs and replacement GAF products because of manufacturing defects for a period of 10 years.

Furthermore, a GAF Certified Contractor can also provide the GAF System Plus Limited Warranty, which can have a Smart Choice® Protection Period ranging from 10 to 50 years.

JM Roofing is also offering a free 21-point roofing inspection. The points they look into include: overall roof and exterior health; nail pops; siding and windows conditions; damaged roofing system; roof?s structural integrity; roof ventilation; missing or broken shingles; roof, chimney and skylight flashings; leak spots; debris build-up in gutters; plant or algae growth on roof; and fascia and soffit.

There are a number of things that differentiate JM Roofing Company of Pensacola from its competitors. These include: their raving five-star online customer reviews; A+ BBB rating; licensed, insured, and bonded contractor; and availability of 50-year roofing warranties.

At Home Advisor, JM Roofing has an overall rating of 4.8 out of 5 stars while on Google the have an overall rating of 5.0 stars.
