

Tiny Rituals, An Online Store Selling Crystal And Gemstone Bracelets, Celebrates Third Anniversary

April 05, 2022

Encinitas, California - April 05, 2022 -
Tiny Rituals, a San Diego-based online store selling spiritual jewelry, is celebrating completing 3 years in business. The store?s range of jewelry includes bracelets made of crystal, and other items such as rings, earrings, and necklaces. The store also offers standalone stones and crystals for those who want to recharge their living space with the gemstones? powerful aura.

A spokesperson for the company talks about its journey over the years by saying, ?We started the store with a humanitarian mission. In 2007, we visited India and witnessed the malnutrition that children faced who were living in impoverished communities. We were very moved by what we saw and we took it took up upon ourselves to do what we could to change the situation. We thus created Tiny Rituals and have since been regularly donating 10% of the profits we make to supply vital nutrients to at-risk children to tackle Vitamin A Deficiency Disorder (VADD). We are proud of what we have achieved over the last three years and we are determined to continue taking the store forward along the same successful trajectory. We also believe that the products that we bring to our customers are making a real tangible difference in their lives. This combination of helping our customers and the innocent children on the other side of the world who need our assistance is what motivates us to put our heart and soul into this store and to continue serving our customers the best crystal products and crystal collections at the most reasonable prices.?

Along with donating 10% of its profits to protect children in need, the company also donates an additional 10% of its profits to support other charitable and environmental initiatives. The company also encourages other enterprising, kind-hearted, and motivated individuals to join its mission through the Tiny Ritual Ambassador Program which gives participants a 30% discount on store products in exchange for promoting the company on their social media channels. The program, which accepts worldwide applicants, requires that they must be active on Instagram, Facebook, Youtube, or a blog and be over the age of 18. Readers can also get 10% off their first purchase by signing up with their email.

The company also has a blog on its website in which it covers a range of topics that are designed to raise awareness of the many benefits of its product lineup. The company?s spokesperson talks about the wealth of information available on its blog by saying, ?We realize that not many people are aware of the life-changing qualities of the gemstones and crystals that we offer. Over the last three years, we have slowly built up a repository of knowledge that documents everything under the sun related to spirituality, healing, gemstones, chakras, and more. If you take some time to go through the research that we have done, you will realize just how much value the right item of jewelry with the right gemstone can add to your life. Your life will transform as you will find yourself more resilient to face the issues that you would have normally struggled with when your body?s natural energy is enhanced by the power of the gemstone or crystal most relevant to your condition. For example, if you are a Capricorn, we recommend that you pick up the Zodiac pack meant for that particular star sign. The Capricorn crystals include Garnet, Blue Azurite, Labradorite, and Rainbow Fluorite. Garnet brings a glorious glow, ensuring that you have the strength and inner energy to keep moving no matter how much the sky is falling. Blue Azurite practically hums out of your hand with its deep vibrations. Labradorite invites you to leap higher into the spiritual realm. Rainbow Fluorite is a beautiful mediator, always willing to reign in those grand emotions and turn what feels tight and blocked into something free and easy. You can head over to our blog and find out more such revealing secrets about popular gemstones.?
