

Proactive Healthcare Recruiters Announces Availability of Physical Therapy Jobs near Atlanta

April 07, 2022

Virginia Beach, Virginia - April 07, 2022 -
Proactive Healthcare Recruiters of Atlanta is happy to announce that they are currently recruiting physical therapists for an outpatient clinic that specializes in Vestibular Rehabilitation. The job being offered is full-time and the salary will be based on experience. The physical therapists will be working one on one with patients to provide personalized care. The clinic provides substantial training and has state-of-the-art technology, such as videonystagmography, computerized dynamic posturography, and more to help in evaluating patients for optimal outcomes. The office has an overhead safety rail system where patients are put in harnesses during treatment to ensure the safety of both the patient and the therapist. This also enables easier point of care documentation.

James Pemberton, executive healthcare recruiter at Proactive, says, ?This outpatient clinic uses technological innovations to achieve topnotch results. Their focus is vestibular rehabilitation, TMJ, and cervical treatment working alongside physicians, audiologists, and speech pathologists for collaborative care. For those who are not trained in vestibular therapy, they offer onsite training and allotment for CEUs to help you be the best in the field. Follow us on Facebook for more details on this job opportunity.?
