

The Mabra Law Firm in Atlanta Explains How To Sue For Wrongful Death

April 04, 2022

Atlanta, Georgia - April 04, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Mabra Law Firm has a team of top Atlanta wrongful death lawyers who are skilled in representing loved ones of accident victims. A wrongful death case seeks compensation for economic and non-economic damages suffered by the deceased's family due to the death of their loved one due to the fault of the negligent party. The Mabra Firm's lawyers have been successfully representing families of wrongful death to help them receive financial compensation for lost wages from the deceased, funeral expenses, and more.

Personal injury law describes wrongful death as the loss of life due to someone's negligence, recklessness, or criminal behavior of another person or entity. A wrongful death lawsuit can be initiated for death due to negligence in a car accident, truck accident, slip and fall, dog attack, nursing home abuse, or assault. The Mabra Firm's wrongful death attorneys also fight claims for victims of workplace accidents. A lawsuit can be initiated against the property owner for providing unsafe working conditions. Additionally, top personal injury lawyers in Atlanta represent victims of medical malpractice. They also represent the deceased killed by unsafe and defective products. A property management company or owners of properties with insufficient security can be sued for not providing sufficient security that led to the death of the deceased.

Top Atlanta wrongful death lawyers can provide the best legal expertise for the family of the deceased and ensure that they receive the maximum financial compensation for the pain and suffering and other financial burdens. An estate representative can file wrongful death claims for direct financial losses sustained in the accident, including burial costs, medical bills, funeral expenses, loss of income, loss of benefits, and loss of inheritance. The personal injury lawyers at The Mabra Firm also ensure that the deceased's loved ones get compensated for punitive damages and loss of companionship, loss of care, pain and suffering, and loss of consortium.

Wrongful death claims are filed by a representative on behalf of the survivors who have suffered damage from losing their loved ones. The representative could be the executor of the descendant's estate.

The personal injury attorneys at The Mabra Firm are up to date with the wrongful death statute of limitations for a personal injury claim in Atlanta. They offer help to the loved ones or estate of the deceased in investigating the case as soon as possible. The leading wrongful death attorney in Atlanta, Ronnie Mabra, cautions, "Every minute that passes without a proper investigation makes your case more difficult to win."
