April 12, 2022 -

Nashville, Tennessee - Titan Roofing Company, a company with branches all over Tennessee, is happy to announce the opening of their branch in Nashville. They are proud to be able to serve the metropolitan area of Nashville and the surrounding areas, offering the same quality craftsmanship and customer service they have been providing to the homeowners and other property owners all around the State of Tennessee, including Jackson, Memphis, and Knoxville. This means that they are expanding rapidly and will be providing their comprehensive array of roofing services, from roof replacements, roof repairs, to roof installations, emergency roofing services, storm damage roofing inspections, and roof estimates. Their services extend from asphalt shingles, tile roofing, slate roofing, metal roofing, cedar shake roofing to even flat roofing services.

For residential roofing, they offer as long as 50-year warranties and they would like to point out that the full bonded, licensed and insured; have dozens of five star reviews. They also will be offering commercial roofing services on various roofing materials such as PVC roofing, low slope roofing, TPO roofing, EPDM rubber roofing, roof coatings, and commercial flat roofs. For commercial roofing, they offer warranties as long as 20 years; they are fully insured, bonded, and licensed; and they have specialists in flat roof detection and repair.

For those whose homes that have suffered storm damage, they could have their roof repairs or even a brand new roof covered by their home insurance. Homeowners can request for a free roof inspection and have it scheduled by using an online form on the website.

Titan Roofing is excited to announce their expansion into Nashville and they are working hard to become Nashville's number one "go-to" roofing company. It appears that they are really on the right path since the customer reviews they have already received have been five star reviews. For instance, Robert R. gave them a five star rating and said, "We couldn't be happier with our experience with Titan Roofing Company of Nashville. They provided us a free roofing inspection immediately after coming out. They provided photos of the condition of our roof and we never felt like they were pressuring us to go with Titan Roofing. We decided to go with them and I still can't get over the price difference from their estimates and several competitors. I appreciate how much they went above and beyond to educate us on all roofing systems and materials - and how quickly they got the job done. They did an excellent job of cleaning up. I highly recommend these local roofers."

Titan Roofing Company of Nashville has many years of experience in residential and commercial roofing and they have the expertise to fully restore or replace the roof, which is arguably the most important part of the home because it protects the property from the harsh elements. Homeowners and other property owners can call them for a free inspection and free estimate.

Michael Newsom, owner of Titan Roofing, says, "We guarantee our customers complete satisfaction. With years of experience in residential & commercial roofing, we have the expertise to help you restore or replace your most valuable investment. We hope that you'll trust us with your investment in your home or building. When it comes time to replacing your roof, take peace of mind by hiring Nashville's best roofing company.
