April 2022: Free BSD Made Easy presents a new article that discusses the importance of automation for small businesses. The report, published on Free BSD Made Easy's website, was compiled using expert opinions on the topic. The report was released amid the rise in automation in businesses.

Automation streamlines and increases the efficiency of business operations. Large corporations cannot function without it. However, automation is debatable as a necessity for small businesses. Automating processes is a key advantage small businesses have, but they are sometimes hesitant to invest in automation. Most small business owners say automation allows them to compete with their larger competitors. Small businesses can increase their output without adding more employees with the help of automation. The publication analyzes how automation can benefit small businesses. The experts in the report explained the need for automation for small businesses.

For the report, business owners were consulted for their professional views on the importance of automation for small businesses. Tech experts were also quoted in the article. The final compilation and review of the report were overseen by Free BSD Made Easy's team of hi-tech experts. The experts interviewed for this article discussed whether it was necessary or not for small businesses to adopt automation into their business processes. The reports found that most experts agreed on the importance and necessity of automation for small businesses.
