

Sports Chiropractor in Beverly Hills Earns Five Star Review

April 22, 2022

Beverly Hills, California - April 22, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Jochen Chiropractic & Wellness Center, a holistic and pain-free clinic based in Beverly Hills, CA, is proud to announce that they have received another five star review from a satisfied client. Erik B. gave them a five star rating and said, "Courteous, communicative, professional, informative, caring." The list goes on and on. A really great experience for all of your wellness needs."

They offer a range of services, from chiropractic care to traditional Chinese medicine (TCM), designed to meet the patients' health and wellness requirements. Dr. Stephen Jochen, D.C. and his team of well trained professionals promote a holistic and pain-free lifestyle, which can provide the best in terms of wellness care. There are a number of factors that differentiate Jochen Chiropractic & Wellness Center from similar providers. These include: the fact that they have the reputation of being a trusted provider for more than 30 years; luxurious and convenient location in Beverly Hills; their offer of acupuncture, massage, and skincare; and daytime, evening, and Saturday morning hours.

One of their key services is sports therapy, which is why when looking for a sports chiropractor near me Beverly Hills residents can go to Jochen Chiropractic & Wellness Center. Whether an individual is suffering from a sports injury or wants to achieve peak performance for the next sports event, their team of highly trained professionals can provide help. They offer a range of sports therapy services in Beverly Hills and the surrounding Los Angeles area.

The sports therapy that they provide will not just benefit those who engage in sports, but everyone who engages in physical activity, such as training for a local marathon or working out at the gym. Their sports therapy treatments can be used for various injuries and conditions, such as: neck pain, shin splints, lower back pain, tennis elbow, tendonitis and bursitis, sprains and strains, and shoulder impingement. They will examine each patient and determine those therapies that would best for a particular individual, such as: acupuncture, cold laser therapy, chiropractic manipulations and massage, strengthening exercises, and cupping therapy.

As part of sports therapy, patients may also be advised to consult with the center's nutrition specialists to make sure that they will get the proper nutrition needed to be able to perform their best and to heal as fast as possible.

Jochen Chiropractic & Wellness Center offers chiropractic care in Beverly Hills using a three-step method toward healing. The first step is the provision of pain-free treatment alternatives to help the patient get relief from pain or effectively manage it if the patient has been diagnosed with a chronic condition. They combine treatments, such as: chiropractic adjustments for optimal spinal alignment; soft tissue massage therapy; and physical therapy. The second step is correction and therapy. They teach patients a series of exercises, including spinal mobilization correction. These unique exercises will help in strengthening the body; providing improved stabilization; and muscle stretching for better flexibility and less pain.

Launched in 1994, Jochen Chiropractic & Wellness Center specializes in helping patients reach their wellness goals by combining the different skills and expertise, from chiropractic care to TCM. Dr. Jochen, who applies the whole-person approach to chiropractic care, leads a team of health professionals at the wellness center and they guide patients along a holistic path towards achieving a pain-free lifestyle. This is a lifestyle that does not depend on pharmaceutical drugs and invasive procedures. With almost two decades of experience, Dr. Jochen and his team have been offering treatments for a wide range of conditions from lower back pain to carpal tunnel syndrome, using various kinds of services, including chiropractic care, acupuncture, and cupping therapy.
