April 29, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

FruX Home And Yard's FruX Natural Bamboo Cheese Board and Knife Set has received a 5-star review on its Amazon store page. The 5 star review on the cheese board and knife set is one of over 1,075 reviews from happy customers.

The aforementioned review titled "Quality Product" that was posted on January 15, 2020, says, "What a beautiful product. So happy with the look and the quality. Bought as a gift and saw it prepared how I imagined. Now I'm going to buy my own."

A spokesperson for FruX Home And Yard responded to the customer's review by saying, "We are always delighted when a customer who buys our product as a gift for someone else sees the value in it and decides to purchase one for themselves. We are confident that once you gift the cheese board and knife set to friends or family they will invite you over for a soiree and you too will fall in love with it. Soon, you will get one for yourself to plan your own little get-togethers with the people you love. The product also makes a perfect gift for occasions such as Christmas, housewarmings, weddings, Thanksgiving, and more. We routinely get feedback from our customers about how much the recipients of the gift loved the utility and quality of our party platter. If you are looking to bring joy to someone who likes to throw parties or is an aficionado of meats, cheeses, or wines, this cheese board & knife set is the perfect gift that will gladly enrich your loved one's dining experience without breaking the bank.

The Frux Natural Bamboo Cheese Board & Knife Set is perfect for serving cheese, meat, fruit, veggie, bread, sushi, sliders, and dessert spreads. The retail package comes with 2 ceramic bowls, 6 appetizer forks, 4 cheese knives, 6 bonus slate cheese labels, and a chalk marker set. The charcuterie board also has 2 seamless slide-out trays that are excellent for keeping the entire set stored conveniently together when not in use. The charcuterie board has an edged rim for serving bread, crackers, fruits, and nuts that can pair well with the main course of cheeses, meats, or vegetables. The cheese board is generously sized as it measures 14.5 inches long, 13 inches wide, and 2 inches tall. The product also keeps environmental friendliness as one of its top priorities as it is made from 100% natural BPA-free bamboo material that won't spoil the cheese with odors, colors, or chemicals.

The cheese board set comes with 4 cheese knives, each of which has been designed for use with a particular kind of hard or soft cheese. The chisel knife is perfect for use with crumbly and firm cheeses such as Parmesan, Emmentaler, Aged Cheddar, Asiago, Manchego, Gouda, and Parmigiano-Reggiano. The cheese fork is useful for hard and crumbly cheeses such as Stilton and Feta. The narrow plane can be used for semi-firm and soft cheeses such as Brie, Camembert, Mozzarella, Cream Feta, Goat, Blue, and Ricotta. The almond knife is designed to slice through hard and semi-hard cheeses such as Cheddar, Goya, Grana Padano, Greve, and Pecorino.

The cheese board & knife set also has plenty of other positive reviews that appreciate the product's ability to make a great gift, sturdiness, feature set, and ease of maintenance. One recent review says, "I love the cheeseboard. This was my first year ever making a cheeseboard. All the utensils nicely sharpened...easy to clean board." Another 5-star review says, "I love everything about this board! It's easy to clean and sturdy. The utensils and bowls are a great bonus. No regrets!!" Readers can browse through many more such reviews praising the charcuterie board set on Amazon.com where it sits at an impressive 4.8 out of 5.0 rating from almost 1100 reviews.

Frux Home And Yard recently rebranded itself as Roots To Table. It is updating existing and new customers on this development so that they can find their favorite products even after the Amazon store page and product listings get updated.
