Jacksonville, FL - Having a rainbow wedding is no longer that burdensome for couples in Florida. With Rainbow Notary and Nuptials, anyone can now get married under the "rainbow."

"We marry everyone with a valid marriage license. Love is LOVE, and we LOVE to marry people. We can marry you as a Notary, A Universal Life Church Ordained Minister, or as a Justice of the Peace," says Rainbow Notary and Nuptials. They have several wedding officiants who can officiate Gay Weddings in Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Daytona, Treasure Coast, Ocala, Gainesville, Orlando, Kissimmee, Tampa, St. Petersburg, Sarasota, and Miami.

Rainbow Notary and Nuptials make weddings official by fulfilling the requirements set forth by the marriage laws in Florida. These include witnessing the couple deliberately give their consent to the marriage and signing the marriage license. Their other duties include:

Ensure the completed marriage license is correctly filed with the State and Clerk of Court.

Organize the party and lead the wedding rehearsal

Provide answers and consultations to the wedding part

Furthermore, the company offers The Rainbow Wedding Chapel, Northern Florida's inclusive and affordable solution to wedding planning. The chapel is located Inside Maddy D's Café at 440 West Adams Street, Jacksonville, FL, 32202. Those who plan to have a momentous gay wedding can do it here without hassle.

They have two unique indoor settings: a Beach Wedding on the sand and a boardwalk and a Garden Chapel setting on the grass with a background of a lovely flower wall and topiary boxwoods and a stone wall. Their indoor chapel is warm in the winter and cool in the summer, and it never rains on anyone's wedding day. Couples can choose from several ceremonies: with or without prayer, with or without rings. These options can include prayers of any faith or none. They also customize the wedding ceremony depending on the couple's liking.

Meanwhile, Rainbow Notary and Nuptials also focuses on mobile notaries besides weddings ceremonies. They notarize documents remotely to accelerate transactions. They ensure the legitimacy of their documents by employing Remote Online Notary systems with Knowledge-Based Authentication, which confirms the signer's identity using a driver's license or passport credential analysis.

As part of their commitment against Covid, Rainbow Notary and Nuptials encourages contact-free service. They provide free consultations on their products and services, including wedding officiant services. Furthermore, they provide personalized service, addressing their clients' needs.
