Manhattan criminal defense lawyers Russ Kofman and Arthur Lebedin launch a newly updated website (<https://www.lebedinkofman.com/>). Both lawyers decide to update their website in order to make the site more user-friendly and better serve their community in New York City.

Attorney Russ Kofman and attorney Arthur Lebedin are Manhattan criminal defense lawyers who aim to reach more people with their service. This is the main objective of redesigning their website. The new website boasts upgraded navigation and functionality which makes it easier for the user to find what they are looking for.

On the website, the visitor will find easy access to information on criminal offenses such as DWI, domestic violence, and white-collar crimes. These criminal offenses are usually punished by the justice system severely. This is why both attorney Kofman and attorney Lebedin have made it their goal to help those who are accused of these crimes and help them potentially lower the penalties they are facing.

If the visitor is looking to learn more about how both lawyers are able to help with DWI, domestic violence, and other criminal offenses, they will be able to read about that on the new website. As attorney Kofman mentions on the website, "As members of the National College of DWI Defense, our attorneys can tirelessly fight for you in pursuit of the best results. We handle DWI/DUI cases from arraignment through trial, if necessary."

"Lebedin Kofman LLP understands how difficult it can be to be charged with a crime. There is often much at stake, and you may not know what your next steps should be. That's why we guide our clients every step of the way and inform them of the potential short- and long-term effects of their choices," says the criminal attorney Arthur Lebedin.

The new website focuses on making the information featured more comprehensive and accessible to the readers. Aside from the aforementioned, the website also contained relevant information about criminal offenses and how the lawyers may be able to extend their services.

Attorney Russ Kofman further explains that the website is also now more accessible for mobile users. If a visitor wants to read more about the practice areas, the legal team, and case results, they can do so on the newly updated website. The visitor may also visit or read reviews about the lawyers' work.

According to attorney Kofman, "At Lebedin Kofman LLP, we are dedicated to providing our clients with the highest-quality legal services possible. With years of in-depth experience under our belts, we have a lengthy track record of success in our practice areas."

Both the lawyers are encouraging the potential clients to visit their site so that the potential clients can reach out should they need any legal assistance. The firm is known in the community for its work and its website is a way for its clients to reach them easily. The website contains all the lawyers' contact information for easier access as well.
