May 24, 2022

Denver, Colorado - May 24, 2022 -
MyKarateStore.com is organizing a Father's Day sale in June and is offering a special discount on its foam nunchaku.

Readers interested in purchasing the foam nunchucks can avail of a $5 discount with the coupon code - "$5OFF". The nunchucks, which usually sell for $25.99, can be bought on Father?s Day for just $20.99. The Father?s Day sale is scheduled to start on 1st June 2022, and it will run until the end of the month. Apart from nunchaku, the store also makes available weapons and related accessories for sale online in a range of categories such as Escrima/Arnis, Kamas, Knives, Sai, Shinais, Staffs, Swords, Tonfa, Yawara/Kubotan, Exotic Chinese, Sword Stands, and Carrying Cases.

A spokesperson for the online martial arts supply store talks about the appeal of nunchucks by saying, "If you have a father who grew up in the 70s or 80s, you can bet your bottom dollar that he must have been fond of the martial arts movies that were being imported to the United States during those decades from China and other Asian countries. For a moment in time, they seemingly took over the entire action movie zeitgeist in Hollywood. Bruce Lee was one of the foremost pioneers of that genre of movies that offered visceral thrills through impressive stunt work and creative action. A gifted martial artist, talented actor, and accomplished action choreographer, his talent spearheaded a lot of the fascination that kids, and even adults, during those decades developed with martial arts movies. The iconic image of Bruce Lee holding up the nunchucks on the poster for ?Enter the Dragon? is permanently seared onto the minds of an entire generation of men that came into their own during that time. This Father?s Day, if you want to give your father a gift that instantly takes him back to his formative years and makes him feel giddy with nostalgia, you can consider getting him the foam nunchucks that we are offering for sale at MyKarateStore.com. If you know your father, you know that he'll want a pair of nunchucks for Father's Day. If you love him, you'll buy the foam-covered set for his safety. For the Father?s Day sale you will even be able to pick them up at a discount. There is no reason to miss out on this deal."

MyKarateStore.com also has a ton of different related products that can become an essential purchase once the buyer becomes comfortable with their purchase of foam nunchaku. For example, those who want to learn how to make the most of their brand new foam nunchucks can also consider buying the DVD or VHS of the tutorial series titled ?Nunchaku by Dave Hansen? which is currently available in 3 volumes. The first volume shows all the basics including warm-ups, breathing, stances, blocks, strikes, and drills. The content in the first DVD is based on the curriculum of Sundragon Martial Arts, producer of many nunchaku champions and masters. In the second volume, viewers can learn many new striking methods and accompanying drills, including a special training form called "Dragon Myst", which reinforces all the techniques in one fluent and flashy form. In addition, the second volume also teaches the basics of twin nunchaku. Finally, the third volume in the series offers Advanced Nunchaku training that focuses on using two nunchaku and open hand techniques. In the third volume, viewers can learn speed techniques, spins, rolls, and combination forms.
